

Mrs Hanbidge's Home Learning Literacy Comprehension 2

Hi everyone.

Here is another story for you to read carefully and answer the questions.

Remember your handwriting is very important. Keep it neat and form your letters carefully.

Here goes!

Step 1 Read the story carefully and slowly.

Step 2 Answer the questions writing them down in full sentences.

(Do you remember that was the tricky part. Don't just put the answer in.

Step 3.... Remember to skim and scan the paragraphs (look through the story for answers. Don't give up! all the answers are there.)

Fairy Godmother Story

It was a muddling sort of day. Goldilocks could tell it was the minute she came downstairs for breakfast. Her Grandmother, whose job was being a fairy godmother to poor helpless girls, was staying for a while.

She had been working very hard lately and was a bit befuddled. Her magic had mixed with her mind mum had said, and she needed a bit of normality to get things straightened out.

Well, it wasn't normal that morning. The cornflakes were all floating in mid air and the milk was zipping round the walls round and round getting faster and faster, whilst the sugar was dancing into various sugar statues. The sugar turned from a horse to a dragon and then a lion and then her father who was making very funny faces at her.

1. Who came to stay with Goldilocks for a while?
2. What word in the story tells you that the fairy godmother was not thinking straight?
3. What was the cornflakes doing that they shouldn't have been doing?
4. What was horse and dragon shapes made out of?
5. What is the word that described that morning?
6. Who was making funny faces at Goldilocks?
7. How many adjectives (describing words) can you find in this story?
8. How many nouns (naming words) can you find in this story?
9. Who are the main characters in this story?
10. Where does this story take place? (what is the setting)
