

Chapter 6 - Brown Paint: A Conjunction is a word that joins one sentence to another. Look at the start of each sentence, then complete the sentence using the conjunction shown. Read through your sentence to check it makes sense.

Start of sentence	Conjunction	End of sentence
George turned off the heat under the saucepan	because
George said. "It simply must be brown"	or
George took a screwdriver	and
Where's that medicine of mine	came
George called back "I'm thinking of you all the time"	but
Had the medicine cooled down enough? Not quite	so
Holding the spoon in one hand	and

Chapter 6 - Brown Paint: A Conjunction is a word that joins one sentence to another. Look at the start of each sentence, then add a conjunction and complete the sentence. Read through your sentence to check it makes sense.

Start of sentence	Conjunction	End of sentence
George turned off the heat under the saucepan
George said. "It simply must be brown"
George took a screwdriver
Where's that medicine of mine
George called back "I'm thinking of you all the time"
Had the medicine cooled down enough? Not quite Holding the spoon in one hand

Add your own words underneath each picture to retell Chapter 6: Brown Paint

Create eight pictures and use your own words to retell Chapter 6: Brown Paint

